

Noted Dancers To Give Concert

University Group Brings Humphrey Weidman Dancers Here Tuesday

Attention Students!

All students who have not had their picture taken are requested to report to Room 26 between 1 and 5 this afternoon.

Students uncertain whether they have had their pictures taken previously should inquire at the Registrar's office.

Lecture-Concert In Afternoon Free To Students

Charles Weidman and Doris Humphrey, noted modern dancers, will arrive Tuesday noon to give a lecture-recital and concert at Technical High school in the afternoon and evening. The University Women's Athletic association is sponsoring the affair under Miss Ruth Diamond's direction.

Free Lecture-Recital

Students will be excused from classes Tuesday afternoon to attend the lecture-recital provided that they make arrangements with their professors. This recital is free to all students upon presentation of their activity tickets, as President Haynes has made this possible out of his own budget.

The recital will start promptly at 3:15 p. m. in the Technical High school auditorium. It will include numbers from their concert repertoire with explanations of dance technique by Miss Humphrey.

Concert at Tech at 8:15 P. M.
The evening concert will include

Charles Weidman, Jose Limon and George Bockman are shown here in a pose from "Traditions" which will be included in their Tuesday evening concert—"Traditions" shows the way habits of thought resist change.

a number of their most popular and best known numbers. They are: "To the Dance", "Variations on a Theme of Handel", "Traditions—All Professionals" from Miss Diamond's office or from a box office in the Hotel Fontenelle. Tickets are $.55, $1.10 and $2.20.

Their present group, all professionals, includes the outstanding young Mexican dancer, Jose Limon, an artist in his own right, as well (Continued on page 4)

Both Weidman and Miss Humphrey toured with the Denishawn dancers in the Orient in 1925. In 1927, they opened their own school in New York City.